

Città di
VITERBO

European Capital
of Culture 2033
Candidate City

Villa Lante in Bagnaia

Villa Lante in Bagnaia

Just a short journey from Viterbo is the enchanting Villa Lante, home to one of Italy's most breathtaking Renaissance gardens. This incredible masterpiece beautifully balances art and nature and was honored as the Most Beautiful Garden in Italy in 2011. As you stroll through its stunning grounds, you'll be captivated by the mesmerizing fountains, playful water features, symmetrical terraces, and twin palaces that create a harmonious atmosphere. A visit to Villa Lante promises an unforgettable experience for lovers of architecture and landscape design. promises an unforgettable experience for lovers of architecture and landscape design.

